

About Us

Our Message

MaxiAids is happy and proud to present our online catalog, which is filled with over 9,000 items and has been designed by a staff of professionals who have devoted a great deal of time and effort in bringing you what is the most complete and comprehensive that you will find it informative, interesting, and easy to read.

We understand our customers because we have many of the same needs you do. MaxiAids is owned and operated by individuals who hold on-site training workshops for the blind in conjunction with certain organizations, offering the blind marketable skills.

MaxiAids has been an established special-needs provider for over three decades. In that time, we have evolved into the most comprehensive products for independent living and products designed to enhance your lifestyle simply by making your every-day tasks a special needs item. Why? Because we listen to the people who matter the most... our customers! We base our ever-growing products on our customers need and want. Use the "Contact Us" option at the bottom of every web page to send us your ideas and suggestions.

When you're ready to place an order with us, you can do so through our website, by faxing or by calling our toll-free number. Our representatives are here to give you the quality and professional service you deserve.

Our mission is to become your one source for all your independent product needs, by offering you the lowest prices on quality products and the best service! We have set our goals and standards high because of you... our loyal and dedicated customer.

You deserve the very best!

The MaxiAids Team thanks you for your support and patronage. Please remember, "We are here for you!"
